FEATURE BREED FOR 2023 Poll Dorset

The Poll Dorset is a short-wool, predominantly meat producing sheep.

Developed in Australia in 1937 from the Dorset Horn, a small group of skilled sheep breeders worked to eliminate the horns whilst maintaining the desired carcase attributes for the prime lamb industry.

Its main distinguishing features are its hornless appearance, long, lean square body set on short legs, pink skin and 'spongy' short-stapled wool. The Poll Dorset produces a fleece of white, dense downs type wool of approximately 30 microns fibre diameter and it has a white wool-free face.

Poll Dorset sheep have a 'downs' type of wool. Downs wool is known for its density and springiness, making it ideal for doona and quilt production.

With a staple length of 5-7.5cm, it is ideal for long draw hand spinning, which traps air into the fibre, making the yarn produced ideal for socks and jumpers.

In the commercial lamb production system, the density of the downs wool contributes to a higher quality skin. These are more valuable in the trade and are used for high wear items such as ugg boots and car seat covers.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

This glossary has been compiled to assist exhibitors when entering the Woolcraft Section of the Australian Sheep & Wool Show. These terms are intended to be used for the purpose of clarifying the Show Schedule.

ACCESSORY: Article worn to complete, or as part of, an outfit eg socks, mitts, scarf, jewellery, leg warmers.

ALPACA: The fibre of the alpaca, an animal from the South American Camelidae family.

ANGORA: The fibre of the angora rabbit.

ARTICLE: An accessory, toy or furnishing. When a class calls for an article, this means one (1) piece only.

ART YARN: The manipulation of fibre using innovative/creative spinning techniques to produce a consistent, original style of yarn (not fractal spinning).

BLEND: A mixture of fibres blended together. Unless otherwise stated a blend must contain minimum 60% wool.

CAMEL: The fibre of the camel or dromedary. Either the coarse outer hair, as used for rugs, etc. or the soft under hair as used for jumpers, etc.

CASHMERE: The fibre of the cashmere goat.

COMMERCIAL YARNS / FABRICS: These are yarns / fabrics that have been purchased by the exhibitor. They have been commercially manufactured. In classes where these are permitted, it is a condition of entry to attach to the exhibit a sample of the yarn / fabric and any tickets or labels that were supplied with the yarn / fabric. If no labels, state brand and place of purchase.

COTTON: The fibre of the cotton plant. The semi-processed stage (ie cleaned but unspun) is the origin of 'cotton wool' as used for medical purposes. This is not permitted as 'wool' in this schedule.

DESIGN: Where applicable, includes design as a fashion garment (shape, silhouette, etc.) and design of motifs and patterns (whether alone or combined).

DISCONTINUOUS WEFT: Weft does not go edge to edge, but is built up in areas.

EMBELLISHMENTS: Trims and embellishments can be used in small quantities to enhance an article where class permits. This includes buttons, laces, zips, metallic yarns, beads, ribbons, elastic, etc. These do not have to be of natural fibres or wool, provided they suit the design of the article.

FELT: Handmade fabric using wool fibre, which is matted and fullled. It is formed by heat, moisture and friction.

– Fulling: Is the second and final step of the felt making process. During this process the soft fabric is rolled, then rubbed and finally it is worked vigorously to make it shrink and compact to become a firm felt. It is an essential process and helps prevent pilling.

– Knitted Felt: This is a knitted woollen article which is fullled.

– Needle Felt: A dry felt technique where the wool is matted using a barbed needle or needles.

– 'Nuno' Felt: 'nuno' - Japanese term for cloth, therefore nuno felt is wool felted onto a layer of cloth.

FRACTAL SPINNING: a method of systematically splitting a painted braid so when the fibre is spun & later knitted/crocheted, the colours are worked in a set sequence.

FINISHING: All exhibits must be totally finished for judging. Washing of articles is permitted where this is part of the finishing process, eg to remove grease and dirt from handspinning, or to finish / set woven cloths.

GARMENT: Clothing excluding accessories. Note that a garment may also be exhibited as an article.

HANDCRAFTED: Where this appears in the schedule, it means any technique the craft person chooses - spinning, knitting, crocheting, weaving, hooking, punching, felting, embroidery, etc. suitable to the purpose of the stated class number.

IDENTIFYING LABELS: It is a condition of entry that no identifying labels should be visible to the judges. Any identifying labels on clothing, etc. must be removed or covered with a piece of fabric tacked over firmly. Any labels found by stewards will be removed or covered during judging. This also applies to faces in photographs.

INSPIRATION STATEMENT (individual entry) — See page 18.

JUTE: Natural fibre obtained from the bast layer of the corchorus plant. A 'stringy' yarn commonly identified with macramé.

LINING / INTERFACING ETC: Garments may have commercially manufactured lining fabrics, interfacing, etc. of a natural or synthetic nature.

LINEN: Natural fibre produced in many forms from the flax plant.

MOHAIR: The natural fibre from the angora goat.

NATURAL ANIMAL FIBRES: Those that are of animal origin (eg wool, silk, mohair, cashmere, alpaca, angora) as opposed to those that are of plant origin, artificial or regenerated by synthetic processes.

NATURAL PLANT FIBRES: Those that are of plant origin as opposed to those that are of animal origin, artificial or regenerated by synthetic processes, eg cotton, linen, jute.

NOVICE: Person who has learnt specified skill in last 12 months.

OTHER ANIMAL FIBRES: Any fibre NOT derived from a Sheep

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED WHAT JUDGES LOOK FOR?

When comparing articles that are frequently quite dissimilar, the judges award points in a range of categories, granting prizes according to total scores.

Before comparison of entries is considered, the judges check that all conditions of entry have been met for each exhibit.

Points are then awarded under topics such as:

- Meets Conditions of Entry numbers 3, 4 & 5—see page 2 (10 points available)
If conditions are not met, 0 points will be awarded. The entry will be judged, but is ineligible for a prize
- Suitability of Purpose including texture, feel, materials, drape (10 pts)
- Structure including evenness, consistency, construction method, wearability (10 pts)
- Finish including blocking/finishing, appropriate surface texture, ends/fibres secure, appropriate seaming, selvedges, edge stitches, fully felted, any holes? (10 pts)
- Presentation can include neatness, colour, design (10 pts)
- Overall impression of entry the WOW factor (5 pts)

The inclusion of design notes, a storyboard or inspiration statement (see below) can be very influential when two entries have accrued identical scores.

⇒ DESIGN NOTES / INSPIRATION STATEMENT

A maximum of 1 x A4 page—could show inspiration, design process &/or sampling.
Useful for judging but will not be displayed.

⇒ INSPIRATION FOR THEME

A brief explanation is essential to illustrate your connection with the theme and the processes/techniques used. Not necessarily displayed.

⇒ STORYBOARD — TEAM ENTRIES

Creation of a storyboard about your entry is encouraged as these extra details can assist the judges. Storyboards can also include non-identifying photos.

For display purposes, please limit size of storyboard to one A3 or two A4 pages.
Not necessarily displayed.
